With great sadness the Everglades Coalition acknowledges the passing of former U.S. Representative Clay Shaw. Congressman Shaw was a champion for America's Everglades, spearheading restoration efforts and garnering bipartisan support for critical water quality improvement projects during his years of service.

Congressman Shaw was the recipient of the Coalition's James D. Webb Public Service Award in 2004 for his outstanding service to the Greater Everglades ecosystem and Florida's public.

The Everglades Coalition extends its heartfelt appreciation to Congressman Shaw and his family for the tremendous passion and commitment he displayed over the years. His efforts will live on for generations to come as we continue to strive toward full restoration of America's Everglades.
